Originally from Haverfordwest Natasha grew up in Bavaria, Germany. She attended the local German mathematical grammar school (Adam-Kraft Gymnasium) in Schwabach before returning to the United Kingdom to complete her Higher Education.

Natasha read Law with German at The University of Sheffield. She graduated with Distinction and was awarded the Kemsley Prize for outstanding achievement. In her third year she studied German Law at the Westfälische-Wilhelms Universität in Münster, North-Rhine Westphalia, Germany.

Natasha went on to complete the Bar Vocational Course at Cardiff University where she was classed as 'Outstanding' in Advocacy, Legal Research, Negotiation, Alternative Dispute Resolution and Professional Ethics. Continuing with her academic studies at Cardiff University she was awarded a Master of Laws in Commercial Law.

Crime

Natasha undertakes both prosecution and defence work in the Crown Court and Magistrates' Court. She frequently represents prosecuting agencies such as the Crown Prosecution Service, the National Probation Service and the Department for Work and Pension. She is happy to accept instructions for both prosecution and defence work throughout Wales.

Family

Natasha's practice encompasses all aspects of private and public family law with a particular emphasis on child care proceedings, recently instructed in a 7 day fully contested final hearing. Natasha regularly represents Parents, Children's Guardians, Local Authorities and Interveners in the Family Proceedings Court, County Court and has appeared in the High Court.

Civil

Natasha provides advice and representation for both Claimants and Defendants in personal injury, contractual, employment and housing dispute cases. Natasha is committed to a quick turnaround of papers and is happy to accept instructions on a conditional fee basis. Natasha speaks fluent German and conversational French.
