Patrick Griffiths is a specialist Criminal Practitioner with many years of experience in serious crime. He is continually instructed in serious, sensitive and high profile cases. He is particularly experienced in sexual offences, child abuse, violence and serious drug crime.

Patrick is a Grade 4 prosecutor for the Crown Prosecution Service and is instructed in a wide variety of cases for both prosecution and defence. He has acted as a junior advocate in high profile murder trials including R –v- Thomas, Taylor and Rafferty (Ben Bellamy murder).

Patrick's reputation as an excellent advocate who is always well prepared for every case gives him a mention in Chambers UK 2008 as a "senior junior of weight".

Living in Swansea, Patrick takes a keen interest in photography and enjoys spending his leisure time taking wildlife and landscape photos in the UK and Europe.
